

Bad Health--Foul Breath*One Time Out of Ten*IT'S CONSTIPATION

If your Bowels are full of stagnant corruption, how can you have health? It leads to almost every serious disease. Correct the evil before it is too late. Be sure to take Eupepsia.

Most suffering is due to neglected constipation, especially among women.

Yes, but not with Eupepsia. That strains and weakens. It's dangerous, and you know from experience it will not cure you worse.

The Eupepsia tablets, which are now too weak to act, must be built up and strengthened.

Feed them with Moll's Grape Tonic, not always, but often. It's a Grape Compound which exerts a healing and strengthening influence over the intestines. A return of active, healthy peristalsis will soon make you feel as though you had Moll's Grape Tonic cure constipation. It differs from anything you have ever used. It is not a physic but a food.

The French Academy of Medicine has now made some startling discoveries as to the therapeutic value of grape juice. Moll's Grape Tonic is nearly so good and strong.

A bottle will be given free to any person sending name and druggist's name. This enables you to receive without expense what you want to receive. What we say of it is true. Address Moll's Grape Tonic Co., 137 3d Ave., Rock Island, Ill.

The Eupepsia Compound is just as good, but more digestible. It costs 99¢ a bottle, contains nearly three times the 50c size.

CATION. The genuine always has number 1 date. The most terrible link in the chain connects the other. Please write for a free bottle at once while the offer is open. Tell your friends about it.

Grandmother Saved Little One, but May Die From Burns Received
In Home.

RECENT SPECIAL.

New York, April 29.—Mrs. Esther May, a widow living with a daughter, Mrs. E. Meyer, at No. 66 Hudson street, was removed to St. Vincent's Hospital suffering from burns which may prove fatal for son, Samuel Koenig, who also lives in the house, was burned on the face and hands in trying to extinguish the flames but avoided her.

Mrs. Meyer had a small store at her home. In the rear of the store is a kitchen containing a large range. Mrs. May, caring for her one-year-old granddaughter, Sarah, lit a fire in the range. As she was using it a flame sprang from the grate, cutting her clothing. She hurried to a table and placed her granddaughter on it, and then tried to extinguish the fire herself. Mrs. May, who was in the store, and Mrs. Koenig, who was upstairs in relation to their mother's accident, James Flanagan, a dreamer of Ingling Company, No. 19, who was on his way from New York to Hoboken, N. J., reached his studio quarters, ran into the house, dashed water on the burning clothing and put the fire out when firemen arrived.

Raiser of Money Orders Promises to Give Up Career.

RECENT SPECIAL.

New York, April 29.—Mrs. Annie Sharpless, a notorious Boston socialite, after her freedom under suspended sentence before Judge Adams in the United States District Court for earnest plea that she wanted to be freed, and that she repented of her past life, was re-arrested at the gates of McMenamin Prison, Philadelphia, by Post Office Inspectors, after he had served two years.

In 1902 Miss Sharpless' husband died in Philadelphia, and she pleaded that while she had been absent from the woods she kept the Post Office authorities busy with postal orders issued from a post office in New Jersey. She was a woman of great personal attractiveness, brilliant personality, and had no difficulty in passing the orders.
